6. SOLEMNIZATION OF THE MARRIAGE BLESSING

Dearly beloved, we gathered here before God and his congregation to join together the Man and Woman in matrimony which is an honourable estate established by God before the fall of man, signifying to us the mystical union between Christ and his Church which Holy estate Christ both honoured and beautify with his presence at the Wedding in Cana of Galilee where he performed His first miracle.

It is also commenced by Saint Paul to be of great honour among all men.

It is therefore not a thing to be rushed into, undertaken or instituted lightly to satisfy our carnal lusts and appetites, like brute beast that have no understanding, but reverently discreetly, adversely, soberly and in the fear of God, carefully considering the causes of which matrimony was ordained.

FIRSTLY: It was ordained for mutual companion, help and comfort that one ought to have of the other both in prosperity and adversity.

SECONDLY: It was ordained for a remedy against sin, and to avoid fornication that such person that have not the gift of confidence might marry and keep themselves undefiled members of Christ's body.

THIRDLY: It was ordained for procreation of children to be brought up in the fear and nature of the Lord and to the praise of his Holy Name, into this only estate, these two persons here present have come to be joined.

Therefore, if any man can show any just cause, why they may not be lawfully joined together, let him now speak, or else here after forever for hold his peace.

The Voice that Breathed Over Eden

1. The voice that breathed o'er Eden,
That earliest wedding day,
The primal marriage blessing,
It hath not passed away.

2. Still in the pure espousal
Of Christian man and maid,
The holy Three are with us,
The threefold grace is said,

3. For dower of blessed children,
For love and faith's sweet sake,
For high mysterious union
Which naught on earth may break.

As Thou, for Christ the Bridegroom,

MY HOPE IS BUILT ON NOTHING LESS

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus Christ, my righteousness;
No merit of my own I claim
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.

When darkness veils His lovely face,
I rest on His unchanging grace;
In every high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds within the veil.

Gbat'ipe kehin ba si dun
A! m ba le wa ninu Jesu
Ki nwo ododo Re nikan

Mo duro le Krist' apata
Ile miran iyanrin ni

His oath, His covenant, His blood,
Support me in the whelming flood;
When all around my soul gives way,
He then is all my hope and stay.

When He shall come with trumpet sound,
Oh, may I then in Him be found;
In Him, my righteousness, alone,
Faultless to stand before the throne.
